Start Your New Year Organized And Help Raise Monies for Habitat for Humanity!!

NASHVILLE, TN— If getting organized is on your list of New Year's resolutions, then plan on attending Club Organize, a two-day seminar event being held by area members of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO). Funds raised will be donated to Habitat for Humanity of Williamson County.

As part of Get Organized MonthSM, sponsored by NAPO, local members are teaching seminars on a variety of topics. Classes will cover such popular subjects as Time Management, Got Family-Will Organize, Organizing 101, The Art of List-Making and several more. Members will also host an Ask the Organizer Panel Discussion and show off their own favorite organizing products!

"Now is the perfect time to learn tips and ideas for getting organized while having fun and benefiting those who are in dire need of adequate housing," says Lisa York, Event Chair for Club Organize and a Certified Professional Organizer®.

"Our talented area NAPO members decided to kick the year off with a bang! We have such enthusiasm for what we do and truly look forward to making a powerful impact for not only those who attend, but also for those who will be able to finally live in a home of their own," said Cindy Sullivan, President of the NAPO Nashville Chapter (In-Formation). "We are hoping to raise big monies for Habitat!"

The local members of NAPO, currently a NAPO Chapter-in-Formation, are excited to team up with their host, Christ United Methodist Church (christum.net) in Franklin. Club Organize will be an important part of both organization's community and charitable activities for 2008.
